Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I inadvertently omitted the subject line in a previous message so am resending this to be sure it is received.

I support any action possible against Microsoft. My first computer was an Imac and I wanted to use Netscape as my browser, but the computer was set up for Explorer. It took hours of work to get things set up for Netscape. A less tenacious person would have given up and settled for Explorer. Microsoft had an unfair advantage in my opinion. Thank you for your efforts.

Sincerely,
Marilyn Wolf
