

From: Clyde and Jean
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/13/01 2:25pm
Subject: This suit seems more an assist to Microsofts competitors than

This suit seems more an assist to Microsofts competitors than concern about MS's so called monopoly position in the market place. It is difficult to see how the customer is benefited by any of the 'remedies' that have been proposed.

The best thing for the consumer is competition among the the companies. As MS improves it's products the others must improve theirs instead of the expecting the government to provide them with a favored position that does not benefit the consumer in the long run.