

From: Bruce Sparks
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/7/02 8:46pm
Subject: Microsoft

Drop the stupid persecution of a company that has excelled. It has become fashionable in America to penalize those that have done well, and reward those that can't make it on their own. Microsoft has done more than any other company to advance technology in America. No, I don't have any interest in Microsoft, (wish I had bought their stock years ago) other than a belief that excellence should be rewarded, not penalized.