I wish to thank you for your continuing pursuit of a fair settlement for the people and corporations of this country that have, for years, been covertly violated by Bill Gates and Microsoft. His mafia-like tactics, and proclaiming of innocence, as well as his propensity for getting away with most of it, are legendary within the computer industry and obvious to the educated consumer.

Both Mr. Gates and our previous President have had the opportunity to lie, cheat and spiritually mess with this country... maybe there ought to be a "reality show" competition between them to see which one more deserves the "Slick Willie" moniker. :)

Please dont let Microsoft continue their illegal and uncapitalistic practices. Fair competition, without fear of reprisals or blackmail, is what our phenomenal capitalistic system should be based on. Those who don't respect that premise, regardless of how many pockets they line, should be held strongly and surely accountable for thier actions.
