

From: John Kehoe
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 10:56am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The proposed settlement as it stands does nothing remedy the actions of Microsoft, which has been found guilty of being a monopolist. The high tech field is an important arena for the US to be competitive is we are going to retain our economic and political power. Microsoft has been found guilty of hindering the innovation the US needs to survive in this area.

The proposed settlement will continue the status quo and puts the United States at risk.

Regards,

John Kehoe