

From: jerichelsing@yahoo.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 12:51pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I think that the opposition to the settlement is the work of competitors of Microsoft who are simply looking to gain any kind of advantage they can. Microsoft is a fine American company that should be permitted to innovate for the benefit of the consuming public. The public is in favor of this settlement and in favor of a new look at anti trust law so that truly creative companies can thrive and not be the subject of legal actions fro their less innovative competitors.