

From: Paul Sumedinger
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 2:19pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Strong remedies are required to mitigate the strong findings of fault upheld by the courts.

Simple remedies are likely to appear as a political buyout.

Enough damage has been set upon users though corporate neglect. The security problems resulting from the products forced upon users by unfair licensing agreements is world laughable.

Many years ago AT&T and IBM were required to submit to strong remedies. No less remedy should be prescribed in this settlement.

Paul Sumedinger
PO Box 208
Towner, ND 58788