Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I am against the currently proposed settlement with Microsoft. They have shown them selves to be a law breaker many times over. Given Microsoft's past behavior towards "consent decrees", I believe that they will continue their standard operating procedure w/o regards to the fact that they been proven to be a monopoly.

Microsoft should be punished for breaking the law. They should pay consumers of their products from the over 30 billion dollar war chest that they have illegally collected. We must take advantage of this opportunity, or else the US will be back in court five years from now.

Sincerely

Bernhard H. Damberger
