

From: harborridg1@msn.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 10:26am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The antitrust case against Microsoft should be ended. In fact it is my opinion that a case should never have started. Microsoft has produced excellent products which have resulted in the company taking the lead in software. As for bundleing products other companies do that also. Close the case and let everyone make progress on new and better software.