

From: paul wilzbach
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 12:41pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The DOJ is NOT protecting the Public's interest with the proposed Microsoft antitrust settlement. Until a pc can be shipped without a Microsoft operating system and without economic retaliation from Microsoft, the technology industry will be held hostage to Microsoft's monopoly.

I will be writing my state's Congressional representatives to explore the Tunney Act to help protect us from the DOJ's monumental sellout. There is no other way I can view this.

-Paul Wilzbach