Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I want to give my support to settlement of the antitrust settlement between Microsoft, the DOJ, and nine states.

To let the greedy states and Microsoft competitors seek to persist in their efforts to prolong this case is plain wrong.

In December of last year I bought a new Dell Computer. WindowsXP and Office 2000 are marvelous. Microsoft is a great company with great products. If competitors developed new products and managed as well as Microsoft they could earn money through their product sales insted of suing Microsoft.
