Attorney General John Ashcroft
950 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, DC 20530

Attorney General Ashcroft:

A settlement in which Microsoft has to pay the bill is not in the "public interest". Paying the legal staffs of the federal and state DOJs, Microsoft, possibly of the AOL conglomerate, and all the class action seeking lawyers is not in the "public interest". Any such result will mean an increase in Microsoft prices and the entire industry will increase their prices to keep up. We do not need another IBM or AT&T settlement that only "busts" a good company, redistributes business and forces consumers to pay higher prices for the resulting fiasco.

Very, very and angrily Sincerely,

Christine F. Keller
