The above-referenced debtor(s) is the subject of a pending case under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 1102, the United States Trustee seeks to appoint a committee representative of the unsecured creditors listed in the case. According to information supplied to our Office, it appears that you may be one of the largest unsecured creditors.

The United States Trustee seeks to appoint a Committee in this case consisting of creditors who are willing to serve on such Committee. To be considered for appointment on this Committee, you must complete the annexed Questionnaire. If you would consider serving on the Committee please complete the annexed Questionnaire and submit it via email to Tina.L.Oppelt@usdoj.gov. The completed Questionnaire must be received no later than March 26, 2024 at 1:00 p.m. If the unsecured creditors respond to this solicitation, I will schedule an organizational meeting or telephone conference for the purpose of forming an Official Unsecured Creditors' Committee.

The Unsecured Creditors' Committee has a vital role in Chapter 11 proceedings; please give thoughtful consideration to participating on this Committee. Thank you.

CREDITORS' COMMITTEE INFORMATION SHEET

Chapter 11 Proceedings Generally — After the commencement of a Chapter 11 bankruptcy case, the debtor generally continues to operate its business as a "debtor in possession." Most actions to recover or enforce pre-bankruptcy claims against the debtor are automatically stayed under Bankruptcy Code Section 362.

A plan of reorganization can modify the rights of any class of creditors and can be confirmed by the bankruptcy court over the objections of one or more classes of creditors, provided that such creditors receive under the plan at least as much as they would receive in a Chapter 7 liquidation. If the bankruptcy court does not confirm a plan of reorganization, the Chapter 11 case may be converted to a Chapter 7 liquidation case or it may be dismissed.

The debtor has the exclusive right to file a plan of reorganization for 120 days after the entry of the order for relief unless the bankruptcy court approves a longer or shorter exclusivity period. Following the expiration of the exclusivity period, or if certain other conditions are met, any party in interest, including a creditors' committee, may file a plan of reorganization. Typically, debtors attempt to negotiate the terms of the plan of reorganization with their creditors and the Creditors' Committee if there is one.

Purpose of Unsecured Creditors' Committee — The purpose of an Unsecured Creditors' Committee is to increase meaningful creditor participation in the Chapter 11 case. Bankruptcy Code Section 1102 requires that the United States Trustee, appoint a committee of unsecured creditors (the "Committee") as soon as practical after the order for relief has been entered. The Committee ordinarily consists of those creditors who are willing to serve and hold the seven largest claims against the debtor which are representative of the creditor body. According to a list filed by the debtor(s) your claim appears to hold one of the largest unsecured claims against the debtor. You may, therefore, be eligible to serve on the Committee.

Powers and Duties of Unsecured Creditors' Committee — Members of the Committee are fiduciaries who represent all unsecured creditors as a group. Bankruptcy Code Section 1103 provides that the Committee may consult with the debtor, investigate the debtor and its business operations, and participate in the formulation of a plan of reorganization. The Committee may also perform such other services in accordance with the interests of the unsecured creditors whom it represents.

Employment of Professionals — Bankruptcy Code Section 1103 provides that, subject to the bankruptcy court's approval, the Committee may employ one or more attorneys, accountants, or other professionals to represent or perform services for the Committee at the expense of the bankruptcy estate. Applications for the payment of professional fees from the bankruptcy estate are monitored by the Office of the United States Trustee, and are subject to court approval. In addition, the Committee should carefully review all fee applications and object to any excessive professional fees.

Other Matters — The Committee must select a chairperson and should adopt bylaws. As a party in interest, the Committee may participate in most issues arising in the bankruptcy case. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002(i) requires that the Committee (or its authorized agent) receive all notices concerning motions and hearings in the bankruptcy case.

Should you have any additional questions concerning the Committee or your potential membership on the Committee please contact Lauren Bielskie, Esq. via email at the Office of the United States Trustee, lauren.bielskie@usdoj.gov.
