Executive Office for Immigration Review; Definitions; Fees; Powers and Authority of DHS Officers and Employees in Removal Proceedings

AGENCY: Executive Office for Immigration Review, Department of Justice.

ACTION: Interim rule with request for comments.

SUMMARY: This rule amends regulations relating to the Executive Office for Immigration Review to conform with certain regulatory changes made by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) for consistency and clarity. This rule makes no substantive changes in the Department of Justice regulations, but makes appropriate revisions to the definitions and fee provisions and the regulations relating to issuance of notices to appear and subpoenas in the EOIR regulations, in order to avoid confusing and unnecessary duplication of provisions already set forth in the DHS regulations. Finally, this rule makes a necessary technical change to an existing regulation.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

On November 25, 2002, the President signed into law the Homeland Security Act of 2002 (HSA) creating the new Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and transferring the functions of the former Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) to the Department of Homeland Security. Public Law 107-296, tit. IV, subtit. D, E, F, 116 Stat. 2135, 2192 (Nov. 25, 2002). The Attorney General retained the functions of the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) in the Department of Justice. HSA section 1101, 116 Stat. at 2273.

In order to implement the transfer of functions under the HSA, the Attorney General reorganized title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations and divided the regulations into chapters relating to the functions of the then-INS (chapter I) and the functions of EOIR (chapter V). 68 FR 9824 (Feb. 28, 2003); see also 68 FR 10349 (March 5, 2003). The Attorney General transferred appropriate parts, subparts and sections of the regulations, and duplicated other parts, subparts and sections, to ensure continuity in the regulations pertaining to EOIR, while making the appropriate division of authority under the HSA. The Secretary of Homeland Security has since issued two regulations amending 8 CFR chapter I. In light of those changes, the Attorney General is making conforming amendments to ensure continuity and to clarify the regulations in 8 CFR chapter V.

Definitions; Powers and Authority of DHS Officers in Removal Proceedings

On June 13, 2003, the Secretary of Homeland Security issued a final regulation conforming portions of the regulations in 8 CFR chapter I regarding legacy INS functions transferred into the structures established in the HSA in accordance with DHS' reorganization plan. 68 FR 35273 (June 13, 2003). Relevant changes made by DHS included revised definitions in 8 CFR part 1, and revisions to provisions in part 239 and part 287 designating DHS officers who are authorized to issue Notices to Appear in connection with proceedings before immigration judges and the Board of Immigration Appeals, and who are authorized to issue and serve administrative subpoenas. The Attorney General has determined that it is appropriate to adjust the regulations in 8 CFR parts 1001, 1239, and 1287 relating to EOIR in order to reflect these changes, eliminate unnecessary duplication, and ensure greater clarity.

Specifically, in 8 CFR 1.1, DHS has changed the definitions of the terms "Service" and "Commissioner," and added the terms "Secretary," "Bureau," "BCIS," "CBP," and "ICE." These definitions refer directly to DHS or legacy components of the INS, and this rule revises the definitions in 8 CFR 1001.1 to cross-reference relevant terms rather than attempting to duplicate the specific DHS definitions, which DHS may change over time.

This rule makes two exceptions to the definitions promulgated by DHS. Unless otherwise specifically noted, the term "Department" in 8 CFR chapter V refers to the Department of Justice, while the DHS regulations in 8 CFR chapter I use the term to refer to the Department of Homeland Security. Moreover, this rule revises the definition of the term "Director" in 8 CFR chapter V to refer to the Director of EOIR, unless otherwise specified. The definition in 8 CFR 1001.1(o) now cross-references the term "director," when used in the context of a DHS official, to the definitions in the DHS regulations in 8 CFR 1.1(o).

The rule also revises 8 CFR 1239.1 to cross-reference rather than duplicate the list of officers authorized to issue a notice to appear in 8 CFR 239.1 and to make conforming changes to regulatory references reflecting the transfer of functions to DHS from the former INS. Cross-referencing the list of officers authorized to issue a notice to appear, a rule within DHS' authority, will simplify the regulations. Additionally, 8 CFR 1239.2 has been amended to remove unnecessary provisions, and cross-reference the provisions of 8 CFR 239.2 regarding motions to dismiss a notice to appear.

The rule also amends 8 CFR 1287.4 to focus solely on the issuance of subpoenas by immigration judges during the course of immigration proceedings. As revised, the rule eliminates duplicative provisions relating to DHS's authority by simply cross-referencing the provisions of the DHS regulations relating to the issuance and service of subpoenas by DHS officers and employees. The authority of DHS officers to issue and serve subpoenas prior to commencement of proceedings is within the jurisdiction of DHS. Additionally, a reference to naturalization proceedings under 8 CFR part 335 has been removed from 8 CFR 1287.4(a)(2)(ii) as unnecessary.

Changes to the Fees Provisions

The Secretary of Homeland Security published a final rule in the Federal Register on April 15, 2004 altering the schedule of fees collected from persons filing immigration benefit applications, and making other changes in 8 CFR 103.7. 69 FR 20528. In this interim rule, the Department removes provisions from 8 CFR 1103.7 that relate solely to DHS in order to eliminate the duplicative schedule of DHS fees contained in 8 CFR 1103.7(b) as well as in 8 CFR 103.7(b). This rule also makes revisions in 8 CFR 1103.7 to clarify the requirements and processes for filing fees charged in proceedings before immigration judges.

In addition, this rule refines the provisions regarding filing fees before the immigration judges and the Board of Immigration Appeals in 8 CFR 1003.24 and 1003.8, respectively. The Department is not changing the amount of the fee required for filing appeals, motions, or fees related solely to EOIR Forms. Fees for applications for relief based on DHS Forms that are filed with the immigration court or the Board continue to depend on the DHS fee schedule. Nor is the Department changing the existing process for how fees are paid for such filings.

Instead, this rule changes the structure of the fees regulations at 8 CFR 1003.8, 1003.24, and 1103.7 to make it easier for the public to understand when and how to pay a filing fee in matters relating to proceedings before the immigration judges and the Board. The Department is providing a clearer enumeration of when fees are and are not required, clearer direction on how fees are paid, and cross-references to the list of forms and fees published by the Department of Homeland Security that may be filed during the course of removal and related proceedings that require a fee, such as Form I-485 (Application to Register Permanent Residence or to Adjust Status), and Form I-881 (NACARA, Application for Suspension of Deportation or Special Rule Cancellation of Removal). All forms published by the Department of Justice that require a fee are now listed separately from Department of Homeland Security forms. This rule also includes new language to allow for future electronic fee payment before the Board, a concept that is under consideration.

The provisions in this interim rule with request for comments that have not previously appeared in the regulations of the Department are extracted from the Board of Immigration Appeals Practice Manual and explain with greater clarity when fees are not required, how fees may be waived, the amount required, payment of single fees in consolidated proceedings, forms of payment, and payment to DHS of application fees. These provisions reflect current practice and reduce that practice to regulatory form.

Technical Change

A technical change removes 8 CFR 1003.1(a)(7) to eliminate potential confusion with the language of 8 CFR 1003.1(e)(4). On August 26, 2002, the Department published a final rule improving the management of the Board of Immigration Appeals. 67 FR 54878. That rule included new provisions relating to the Board's case management process, and incorporated into that process the authority for the issuance of an affirmance without opinion. See 8 CFR 1003.1(e)(4). The final regulation inadvertently failed to remove the prior regulatory language addressing affirmance without opinion, contained in 8 CFR 1003.1(a)(7), which serves no further purpose in view of the regulatory changes incorporating this subject into the broader case management provisions in § 1003.1(e). Therefore, this rule removes 8 CFR 1003.1(a)(7).

Administrative Procedure Act

The Department of Justice is publishing this rule as an interim rule, with provisions for post-promulgation public comments, because the rule affects only the internal management of the Department of Justice and does not make any substantive changes to rules that affect the general public. 5 U.S.C.

552(d). The language of the regulations pertaining to payment of fees is intended to state more clearly the existing standards and procedures for payment of fees, and is drawn from previously published guidance from the Executive Office for Immigration Review. These changes do not alter the amount, standards, or procedures for payment of fees that are payable in connection with proceedings before the immigration judges and the Board of Immigration Appeals. Other changes in this rule merely make conforming changes in response to regulations promulgated by the Department of Homeland Security, and delete an outdated procedural provision that the Department inadvertently failed to remove when it published new procedural rules for the Board in 2002.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required for this rule under the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553), the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) do not apply.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104-13, 44 U.S.C. chapter 35, and its implementing regulations, 5 CFR part 1320, do not apply to this final rule because there are no new or revised recordkeeping or reporting requirements.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule will not result in the expenditure by State, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million or more in any one year, and it will not significantly or uniquely affect small governments. Therefore, no actions were deemed necessary under the provisions of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995.

Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996

This rule is not a major rule as defined by section 251 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, 5 U.S.C. 804. This rule will not result in an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more; a major increase in costs or prices; or significant adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or on the ability of United States-based companies to compete with foreign-based companies in domestic and export markets.

Executive Order 12866

This rule has been drafted and reviewed in accordance with Executive Order 12866, section 1(b), Principles of Regulation. The Department has determined that this rule is not a "significant regulatory action" under section 3(f) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review.

Executive Order 13132

This rule will not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with section 6 of Executive Order 13132, the Department of Justice has determined that this rule does not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant a federalism summary impact statement.

Executive Order 12988

This rule meets the applicable standards set forth in sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of Executive Order 12988, Civil Justice Reform.

§ 1003.1 [Amended]

■ 4. Section 1003.1 is amended by removing and reserving paragraph (a)(7).
 ■ 5. Section 1003.8 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1003.8 Fees before the Board.

(a) Appeals and motions before the Board—(1) When a fee is required. Except as provided in paragraph (a)(2) of this section, a filing fee prescribed in 8 CFR 1103.7, or a fee waiver request pursuant to paragraph (a)(3) of this section, is required in connection with the filing of an appeal, a motion to reopen, or a motion to reconsider before the Board.

(2) When a fee is not required. A filing fee is not required in the following instances:

- (i) A custody bond appeal filed pursuant to § 1003.1(b)(7);
- (ii) A motion to reopen that is based exclusively on an application for relief that does not require a fee;
- (iii) A motion to reconsider that is based exclusively on a prior application for relief that did not require a fee;
- (iv) A motion filed while an appeal, a motion to reopen, or a motion to reconsider is already pending before the Board;
- (v) A motion requesting only a stay of removal, deportation, or exclusion;
- (vi) Any appeal or motion filed by the Department of Homeland Security;
- (vii) A motion that is agreed upon by all parties and is jointly filed; or

(3) When a fee may be waived. The Board has the discretion to waive a fee for an appeal, motion to reconsider, or motion to reopen upon a showing that the filing party is unable to pay the fee. Fee waivers shall be requested through the filing of a Fee Waiver Request (Form EOIR–26A), including the declaration to be signed under penalty of perjury substantiating the filing party's inability to pay the fee. The fee waiver request shall be filed along with the Notice of Appeal or the motion. If the fee waiver request does not establish the inability to pay the required fee, the appeal or motion will not be deemed properly filed.

(4) Method of payment. When a fee is required for an appeal or motion, the fee shall accompany the appeal or motion.

(i) In general. Except as provided in paragraph (a)(4)(ii) of this section, the fee for filing an appeal or motion with the Board shall be paid by check, money order, or electronic payment in a manner and form authorized by the Executive Office for Immigration Review. When paid by check or money order, the fee shall be payable to the "United States Department of Justice," drawn on a bank or other institution that is located within the United States, and payable in United States currency. The check or money order shall bear the full name and alien registration number of the alien. A payment that is uncollectible does not satisfy a fee requirement.

(ii) Appeals from Department of Homeland Security decisions. The fee for filing an appeal, within the jurisdiction of the Board, from the decision of a Department of Homeland Security officer shall be paid to the Department of Homeland Security in accordance with 8 CFR 103.7(a).

(b) Applications for relief. Fees for applications for relief are not collected by the Board, but instead are paid to the Department of Homeland Security in accordance with 8 CFR 103.7. When a motion before the Board is based upon an application for relief, only the fee for the motion to reopen shall be paid to the Board, and payment of the fee for the application for relief shall not accompany the motion. If the motion is granted and proceedings are remanded to the immigration judge, the application fee shall be paid in the manner specified in 8 CFR 1003.24(c)(1).

■ 6. Section 1003.24 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1003.24 Fees pertaining to matters within the jurisdiction of an immigration judge.

(a) Generally. All fees for the filing of motions and applications in connection with proceedings before the immigration judges are paid to the Department of Homeland Security in accordance with 8 CFR 103.7, including fees for applications published by the Executive Office for Immigration Review. The immigration court does not collect fees.

(b) Motions to reopen or reconsider—(1) When a fee is required. Except as provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this section, a filing fee prescribed in 8 CFR 1103.7, or a fee waiver request pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, is required in connection with the filing of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider.

(2) When a fee is not required. A filing fee is not required in the following instances:

- (ii) A motion to reconsider that is based exclusively on a prior application for relief that did not require a fee;
- (iii) A motion filed while proceedings are already pending before the immigration court;
- (iv) A motion requesting only a stay of removal, deportation, or exclusion;
- (v) A motion to reopen a deportation or removal order entered in absentia if the motion is filed pursuant to section 242B(c)(3)(B) of the Act (8 U.S.C. 1252b(c)(3)(B)), as it existed prior to April 1, 1997, or section 240(b)(5)(C)(ii) of the Act (8 U.S.C. 1229a(b)(5)(C)(ii)), as amended;
- (vi) Any motion filed by the Department of Homeland Security;
- (vii) A motion that is agreed upon by all parties and is jointly filed; or
- (viii) A motion filed under a law, regulation, or directive that specifically does not require a filing fee.

(c) Applications for relief—(1) When filed during proceedings. When an application for relief is filed during the course of proceedings, the fee for that application must be paid in advance to the Department of Homeland Security in accordance with 8 CFR 103.7. The fee receipt must accompany the application when it is filed with the immigration court.

(2) When submitted with a motion to reopen. When a motion to reopen is based upon an application for relief, the fee for the motion to reopen shall be paid to the Department of Homeland Security and the fee receipt shall accompany the motion. Payment of the fee for the application for relief must be paid to the Department of Homeland Security within the time specified by the immigration judge.

(d) Fee waivers. The immigration judge has the discretion to waive a fee for a motion or application for relief upon a showing that the filing party is unable to pay the fee. The request for a fee waiver must be accompanied by a properly executed affidavit or unsworn declaration made pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1746 substantiating the filing party's inability to pay the fee. § 1103.7 Fees.

(a) Remittances—(1) In general. Fees shall be submitted in connection with any formal appeal, motion, or application prescribed in this chapter in the amount prescribed by law or regulation. Payment of any fee under this section does not constitute filing of the appeal, motion, or application with the Board of Immigration Appeals or with the immigration court.

(2) Board of Immigration Appeals. The fee for filing an appeal or a motion with the Board of Immigration Appeals shall be paid pursuant to the provisions of 8 CFR 1003.8 when a fee is required.

(3) All other fees payable in connection with immigration proceedings. Except as provided in 8 CFR 1003.8, the Executive Office for Immigration Review does not accept the payment of any fee relating to Executive Office for Immigration Review proceedings. Instead, such fees, when required, shall be paid to, and accepted by, an office of the Department of Homeland Security authorized to accept fees, as provided in 8 CFR 103.7(a)(1). The Department of Homeland Security shall return to the payer, at the time of payment, a receipt for any fee paid, and shall also return to the payer any documents, submitted with the fee, relating to any immigration proceeding. The fee receipt and the application or motion shall then be submitted to the Executive Office for Immigration Review. Remittances to the Department of Homeland Security for applications, motions, or forms filed in connection with immigration proceedings shall be payable subject to the provisions of 8 CFR 103.7(a)(2).

(b) Amounts of fees—(1) Appeals. For filing an appeal to the Board of Immigration Appeals, when a fee is required pursuant to 8 CFR 1003.8, as follows:

(4) Applications for Relief—(i) Forms published by the Executive Office for Immigration Review. Fees for applications for relief shall be paid in accordance with 8 CFR 1003.8(b) and 1003.24(c) as follows:

Form EOIR–40. Application for Suspension of Deportation—$100.

Form EOIR–42A. Application for Cancellation of Removal for Certain Permanent Residents—$100.

Form EOIR–42B. Application for Cancellation of Removal and Adjustment of Status for Certain Nonpermanent Residents—$100.

(ii) Forms published by the Department of Homeland Security. The fees for applications published by the Department of Homeland Security and used in immigration proceedings are governed by 8 CFR 103.7.

(c) Fee waivers. For provisions relating to the authority of the Board or the immigration judges to waive any of the fees prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section, see 8 CFR 1003.8 and 1003.24. No waiver may be granted with respect to the fee prescribed for a Department of Homeland Security form or action that is identified as non-waivable in regulations of the Department of Homeland Security.

(d) Requests for records under the Freedom of Information Act. Fees for production or disclosure of records under 5 U.S.C. 552 may be waived or reduced in accordance with 28 CFR 16.11.

For provisions relating to the issuance of a notice to appear by an immigration officer, or supervisor thereof, see 8 CFR 239.1(a).

* * * * *

■ 11. Section 1239.2 is amended by:

■ a. Removing and reserving paragraph (b); and by

Risk-Based Capital Guidelines; Capital Adequacy Guidelines; Capital Maintenance: Consolidation of Asset-Backed Commercial Paper Programs and Other Related Issues

AGENCIES: Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Treasury; Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; and Office of Thrift Supervision, Treasury.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (Board), Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), and Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) (collectively, the agencies) are amending their risk-based capital standards by removing a sunset provision that would preclude a certain capital treatment for asset-backed commercial paper (ABCP) programs after a certain date. The final rule will permanently permit sponsoring banks, bank holding companies, and thrifts (collectively, sponsoring banking organizations) to exclude from their risk-weighted asset base those assets in ABCP programs that are consolidated onto sponsoring banking organizations' balance sheets as a result of Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, as revised (FIN 46-R).

The agencies also are implementing more risk-sensitive risk-based capital standards for credit exposures arising from involvement with ABCP. This final rule generally requires banking organizations to hold risk-based capital against eligible ABCP liquidity facilities with an original maturity of one year or less that provide liquidity support to ABCP by imposing a 10 percent credit conversion factor on such facilities.

The agencies have decided not to implement the proposed risk-based capital charge for securitizations of revolving retail credit facilities (for example, credit card receivables) that incorporate early amortization provisions. In addition, the agencies are making technical amendments to their risk-based capital standards by deleting tables and attachments that summarize risk categories, credit conversion factors, and transitional arrangements.

DATES: This final rule is effective September 30, 2004. However, any banking organization may elect to adopt, as of July 28, 2004, the capital treatment described in this final rule for assets in ABCP programs that are consolidated onto the balance sheets of sponsoring banking organizations as a result of FIN 46-R. All liquidity facilities that provide support to ABCP will be treated as "eligible ABCP liquidity facilities," regardless of their compliance with the definition of "eligible ABCP liquidity facilities" in the final rule, until September 30, 2005. On that date and thereafter, liquidity facilities that do not meet the final rule's definition of "eligible ABCP liquidity facility" will be treated as recourse obligations or direct credit substitutes.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

A. Asset-Backed Commercial Paper Programs

An asset-backed commercial paper (ABCP) program typically is a program through which a banking organization provides funding to its corporate customers by sponsoring and administering a bankruptcy-remote special purpose entity that purchases asset pools from, or extends loans to, those customers.¹ The asset pools in an ABCP program might include, for example, trade receivables, consumer loans, or asset-backed securities. The ABCP program raises cash to provide funding to the banking organization's customers through the issuance of externally rated commercial paper into the market. Typically, the sponsoring banking organization provides liquidity ¹ ABCP programs generally also include structured investment vehicles, which are entities that earn a spread by issuing commercial paper and medium-term notes and using the proceeds to purchase highly-rated debt securities.
