

ANTITRUST DIVISION
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
601 D Street, N.W., Suite 1213
Washington, D.C. 20530
ATTN: Toni Taravella
Telephone: (202) 514-2469
Fax: (202) 514-0580
E-mail: ATR.PERSONNEL@USDOJ.GOV

The Antitrust Division is responsible for enforcing federal laws designed to ensure that our nation's markets are free and open to robust competition. The Division engages in both civil and criminal litigation, and its work ranges over the entire spectrum of the U.S. economy. The Division has in recent years focused on prosecution of large international cartels involving multinational firms and Fortune 500 firms.

Projected No. of Volunteers: 20

Internship Location(s): 6 (Chicago, Philadelphia and San Francisco)
14 (Washington, D.C.)

Application Materials: Cover letter (including dates available and geographic preference), resume, law school transcript (official or unofficial), and writing sample (no more than 5 pages).

Qualifications: First-year (second semester), second- and third-year law students

Application Deadline: Positions are filled on a rolling basis.

Minimum Weeks Required: 6 – 8 weeks

Salary: Volunteer (without compensation). Course credit is available depending on school requirements.

Assignments: Assist in trials and hearings; review documents; prepare legal memoranda and briefs; attend depositions; work closely with attorneys conducting investigations; present legal research in a group setting; prepare assistance requests to foreign governments; conduct interviews of national and international subjects.

Web Site: www.usdoj.gov/atr/index.html