

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY ADVISORY OFFICE
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

1325 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Suite 500
Washington, D.C. 20530

ATTN: Jean F. Spells, Office Manager
Telephone: (202) 514-0458
Fax: (202) 353-7491

The Professional Responsibility Advisory Office (PRAO) provides definitive advice to Department of Justice attorneys on issues relating to professional conduct. The office also serves as advisory counsel on professional responsibility issues to the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, the Associate Attorney General, the Solicitor General, and their designees, and the Attorney General’s Advisory Committee. In addition, we provide training to Department attorneys, Professional Responsibility Officers and client agencies.

Projected No. of Volunteers: 2

Internship Location(s): Washington, D.C.

Application Materials: Resume, transcript (official or unofficial), writing sample, three references, and dates available.

Qualifications: Second- and third-year law students. Prefer students with a special interest in professional responsibility issues who have taken ethics or professional responsibility law courses.

Application Deadline: Fall Semester (September – December): open until filled
Spring Semester (January – May): open until filled
Summer (June – August): typically filled by April 1

Minimum Weeks Required: 6 weeks

Salary: Volunteer (without compensation) or work-study credit only

Assignments: Research, writing and developing drafts on issues related to professional responsibility. The office handles questions from Department attorneys all over the country.

Web Site: www.usdoj.gov/prao