SEDONA CHIROPRACTOR ARRESTED FOR CIVIL CONTEMPT

PHOENIX, ARIZONA - Paul K. Charlton, U.S. Attorney for the District of Arizona, announced that on September 10, 2003, Homer K. Marcy was taken into custody by the United States Marshals. Mr. Marcy had been found in civil contempt on July 28, 2003, after he failed to comply with a Court order to produce documents regarding his tax liability for the years 1995 through 2000, originally requested in an Internal Revenue Service Summons issued in August of 2001. In its Order of July 28, 2003, the Court imposed a fine of $500 a day for every day that Mr. Marcy did not produce the documents.

On September 4, 2003, an Order To Show Cause Hearing was held, and the Government asked the Court to incarcerate Mr. Marcy for his wilful disregard of court orders and his persistent refusal to comply with the IRS summons. The Court ordered that Marcy be incarcerated for six months or until he fully complies with the order enforcing the IRS Summons by producing the summoned documents. Under the terms of the Court's order, Marcy will not be released until he pays the full amount of the fine, which has been accruing at a rate of $500 since July 30, 2003, to the Clerk of the United States District Court for the District of Arizona. The case is being handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Janet M. Walsh.
