

CLE for Agency Counsel Training Modules Presently Available (10/8/2008)

Appellate Advocacy Seminar (Sept. 2007)

This module is intended to strengthen brief-writing and oral-argument proficiencies. Topics covered include: drafting all aspects of the appellate brief, effective oral argument, appellate procedural rules, and standards of review. Recorded live at the Appellate Advocacy Seminar in September 2007 at the National Advocacy Center. Total running time- approximately 336 minutes. (6.5 hours of CLE in 50 minute states, 5.5 hours of CLE in 60 minute states. 0 ethics.*)

A Legal Guide to Electronic Discovery Under the New Federal Rules (April 2008)

This program includes an overview of the recent amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure that address various aspects of e-discovery. It also describes frequently-encountered electronic discovery problems, including identification of electronic data, preservation of information, protection of privileged information, assessing an opponent's e-discovery compliance, potential sanctions, the use of IT experts, and implications for expert witnesses. This program was produced in April 2008 for air on the Justice Television Network. Total running time- approximately 95 minutes. (1.5 hours of CLE in 50 minute states and 1.5 CLE hours in 60 minute states).

Federal Tort Claims Act Seminar (Nov. 2007)

The Federal Tort Claims Act Seminar is designed for attorneys who defend civil tort suits against the United States and its various agencies. Recorded live at the Federal Tort Claims Act Seminar held in November 2007 at the National Advocacy Center. Total running time- approximately 305 minutes. (6 hours of CLE in 50 minute states, 5 hours of CLE in 60 minute states. 0 ethics*)

Evidence for Litigators (May 2007)

This module, while taken from a seminar designed for criminal prosecutors, contains selected presentations that address rules and issues common to all federal legal practitioners. This program is designed to reinforce skills in basic evidence principles including, admissibility, cross-examination and impeachment, relevance, character evidence, hearsay, and privileges. This program was recorded live at the National Advocacy Center in May 2007. Total running time- approximately 395 minutes. (7.5 hours of CLE in 50 minute states, 6.5 hours of CLE in 60 minute states. 0 ethics*)

FOIA: An Introduction to the Freedom of Information Act (May 2008)

This basic training program is designed for attorneys, paralegals, and information officers with limited previous experience under the FOIA who are now, or soon will be, working extensively with the Act. Experts from the DOJOIP discuss procedural issues as well as exemptions, emphasizing the criteria for making information-disclosure determinations. This program was recorded live at the National Advocacy Center in May 2008. Total running time- approximately 160 minutes. (3 hours of CLE in 50 minute states, 2.5 hours of CLE in 60 minute states. 0 ethics*)

* When all state CLE requirements are met. Not eligible for accreditation more than two years after recording date