

Federal District Court Admission

Rule 101.1(f) of the Local Rules for the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey provides that "[a]n attorney admitted to practice in any United States District Court may practice before this Court in any proceeding in which he or she is representing the United States or any of its officers or agencies." If you are not already admitted to practice in a United States District Court, please take steps to gain such admission. While you need not be admitted to practice before the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey, you will be unable to appear in court on behalf of the Office until you have been admitted to practice before a federal district court somewhere in the United States.
