Program Description

The purpose of the Research and Evaluation (R&E) Initiative is to research and evaluate approaches to combatting domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. The initiative is designed to support researcher-practitioner partnerships to study VAWA-funded strategies for serving victims and holding offenders accountable.

What's New About This Program

The 2022 reauthorization of the VAWA Act and the FY 2023 Appropriations Act established several new OVW programs that involve research and evaluation.

Policing, prosecution, and trauma-informed criminal justice responses

LGBT-specific services, outreach, training, education, and prevention

Restorative Justice

Language access in responses to VAWA crimes

Purpose Area(s)

Additional topics for R&E include:

Evaluations of VAWA-funded interventions

Evaluation of training curricula, tools, and other technical assistance (TA) resources developed and implemented with OVW grant funds

Secondary data analyses related to domestic/dating violence, sexual assault, and/or stalking

Research, evaluation, and data analysis related to domestic violence homicide prevention

Purpose Area(s) cont'd.

Evaluations of Emerging Innovations

- Flexible financial assistance or other ways of mitigating survivors' financial insecurity resulting from their victimization.
- Strategies for serving justice-involved, incarcerated, and/or formerly incarcerated survivors.
- Means of supporting survivors' recovery that are outside the mainstream, including but not limited to: art therapy, writing workshops, yoga, massage, animal-assisted interventions, self-defense/martial arts classes, somatic interventions, community engagement, and ways of healing that are rooted in cultural traditions.

Purpose Area(s) cont'd.

Evaluations of Emerging Innovations

- Approaches to addressing the safety, healing, and justice/legal needs of survivors whose lives intersect with the child welfare system (including protective parents whose children are removed from them, youth in foster care and youth aging out of foster care, including pregnant and parenting youth.)
- Engaging culturally specific, community-based organizations and youth in prevention and response programming.
- Engaging community violence intervention programs in the prevention of, and response to, VAWA crimes.

Activities that Compromise Victim Safety and Recovery or Undermine Offender Accountability

OVW does not fund activities that jeopardize victim safety, deter or prevent physical or emotional healing for victims, or allow offenders to escape responsibility for their actions.

Applications that propose any such activities may receive a deduction in points during the review process or may be eliminated from consideration.

Please note that OVW will support survivor-centered alternative pathways to justice and non-criminal approaches to accountability that fall within the statutory scope of this program.

Out-of-Scope Activities

The activities listed below are out of the program scope and will not be supported by this program's funding. See also the list of unallowable costs in the Funding Restrictions section of the FY 2023 R&E solicitation.

Applications that propose activities deemed to be substantially out-of-scope may be eliminated from consideration.

- Proposals to conduct needs assessment activities exclusively for the purpose of program improvement. (Refer to the OVW research decision tree in the Solicitation Companion Guide.)
- Proposals primarily to purchase equipment, materials, or supplies. (A budget may include these items if they are necessary to conduct the proposed study.)
- Proposals that are not responsive to this specific solicitation.
- Programs or services unrelated to the scope of the research project or the intervention being evaluated.

Mandatory Program Requirements

Methodological Principles

Any project funded under this solicitation must adhere to the methodological principles listed below. OVW will only support research methods that:

- Are well-matched to the purpose of the research and build on existing evidence;
- Uphold victim safety as the paramount objective, with the understanding that scientific progress is always subordinate to that objective;
- Are likely to yield findings that have practical utility for victim services providers and justice system professionals;
- Are developed collaboratively between researchers and practitioners;
- Place as minimal a burden as possible on crime victims, offenders, and systems;
- Operate from a cogent theoretical framework; and
- Have been approved by an Institutional Review Board (IRB) if they involve human subjects research.

Methodological Principles cont'd.

OVW will not support research that:

- Prioritizes scientific rigor over practical value or ethics, ethics being broadly defined and not limited to published standards;
- Is minimally useful to practitioners;
- Offers minimal cost benefit;
- Lacks a clear theoretical foundation; and/or
- Is designed to generate descriptive findings that emphasize vulnerabilities and neglect strengths of specific populations. (For instance, a study that examines risk-taking behavior among members of a certain population, without testing any strategies for serving the target population, is not of value to OVW.)

Any recipient of an award under this solicitation will be required to comply with DOJ regulations on confidentiality and human subjects' protection. See Human Subjects and Privacy Protection, at: <https://nij.ojp.gov/funding/human-subjects-and-privacy-protection>.
